

Bachelor of Science Honours in Banking and Finance

Department of Banking and Finance

Graduate Profile

Graduate profile of the department highlights the generic attributes of a graduate who completes BSc. Honours degree in Banking and Finance. The outline of Generic Attributes is based on a framework which has been identified through the consultation of stakeholders in the field of Banking and Finance.

This framework emphasises on four attributes – Personal Capabilities, Discipline Specific Competencies, Professional Attributes and Ethical & Social Attributes. These attributes reflect combinations of clusters of more specific attributes which can be represented in different domains.

Generic Attributes of a Banking and Finance Graduate

On successful completion of the BSc. Honours degree in Banking and Finance, graduates should be able to gain knowledge, skills and competencies to enhance the human capital in the field of Banking and Finance and contributes sustainable development by exploring and addressing vital issues in the national and global arena.

1. Personal capabilities

Demonstrate ability to work and adopt to challenges in the arena of banking and finance

- ◆ Independent and critical thinkers
- ◆ Effective communicators and team workers
- ◆ Adoptable and confident
- ◆ Leadership readiness
- ◆ Self-awareness and emotional intelligence

2. Discipline specific competencies

Create in-depth, specialised knowledge and skills vital for specific career path in the field of banking and finance.

- ◆ Subject specialist
- ◆ Reflective learners
- ◆ Excelling in research
- ◆ Innovative thinkers

3. Professional attributes

Bring the passion for banking and finance and gain the latest knowledge and frameworks in order to make a tangible difference in the industry.

- ◆ Deep discipline knowledge
- ◆ Career awareness
- ◆ Experience collaborators
- ◆ Resourceful and responsible

4. Ethical & Social attributes

Explore and understand the vital issue in social, ethical and environmental aspects.

- ◆ Intercultural and ethical competencies
- ◆ Engaged citizen
- ◆ Responsible and accountable global citizens

“VERSATILE FINANCIERS WHO ACTS AS RESPONSIBLE GLOBAL CITIZENS”

Figure 1: Graduate Profile of the Department of Banking and Finance