Editorial Preface

We are pleased to present Volume 6(2) of the Sri Lankan Journal of Banking and Finance (SLJBF), a refereed journal of Banking and Finance published by the Department of Banking and Finance, Wayamba University of Sri Lanka. SLJBF provides a unique platform for researchers, academicians, professionals, and research students to impart and share knowledge in the form of high-quality research papers to infuse innovative systems and methods to the economy and finance as a whole. In line with that SLJBF invites you to join with us by writing quality manuscripts in the discipline of economics, banking and finance.

We received a good response for the call for papers and out of the paper received seven papers selected for the publication through the rigorous blind review process. We wish to thank all the authors who contributed to this issue by submitting their novel research findings. The volume 6(2) of SLJBF deals with timely important topics, online community engagement and experience and value creation, moderating effect of board independence on the determinants of financial performance in listed non-financial companies of Colombo stock exchange, impact of bank specific and macroeconomic factors on profitability of commercial banks in Sri Lanka, microfinance on women empowerment, monetary policy framework and its impact on the financial sector, relationship between FDI and interest rate in Sri Lanka, evaluation of entrepreneurial intention of Sri Lankan youth generation. Thus, the journal has widened its scope to appeal to a wider readership with varied interest and needs.

On this occasion, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to the dedicated panel of distinguished reviewers, members of the editorial advisory board, members of the editorial board and the assistant editors for their unstinting and voluntary contribution to make this issue a success. The continued support of the governing body of the Wayamba University of Sri Lanka in this endeavor is also acknowledged.
